

What Others Have Said About Jive at Five

"If you love to swing, then Jive at Five is your band. They'll have you dancing soon after you walk in the door, guaranteed. The crowds at Gopherwood just can't seem to get enough of them, which keeps us bringing them back, time after time." - Paul Brown, Gopherwood Concerts, Cadillac MI

"They know how to entertain. They're fun to listen to and they swing! Solid, tight vocals and great instrumental breaks are the trademarks of Jive at Five. Definitely one of my favorite bands." - John Scheffler, WCMU Public Radio, Mt. Pleasant MI

"A nostalgic musical trip back for audience members who remember when, and the opening of a new musical window for young people who experience jazz and swing for the first time. A truly enjoyable experience for all ages." - James M. Rancillo, Director, Bullard Sanford Memorial Library, Vassar MI

"We had a packed house and had to set up extra chairs. Everyone loved it. They have so much fun themselves and are so musical. Even the classical aficionados loved it. One of our audience members said they couldn't think of anything else they could have done that would have been more fun than attending this concert." - Juanita Scharnweber, Marine City Concert Series

"Jive at Five has a nice laid-back style of swing that will keep you on the dance floor all night long...(They're) great on CD and fantastic live. Don't miss this band." - Terry Gardner, TC Swing/Tapestry Folkdance Center, Rhythm and Swing Dance Troupe, St. Paul MN

"These guys are having a great time, as are we with their debut album (Swingin' Standard Time)... They travel from the 30's to the 90's in the finger-popping, hip style they do so well. The vocals are smooth and distinctive. They swing, like WOW!" - Elderly Instruments, Hot Platter Record Review
